If after notice of termination of this order under the provisions of this clause it is determined for any reason that the Seller was not in default under the provisions of this clause, and if this order does not contain a clause providing for termination for convenience, the order shall be equitably adjusted to compensate for such termination and the order modified accordingly. Failure to agree to any such adjustment shall be a dispute concerning a question of fact within the meaning of the clause of this order entitled "Disputes".

In such event, the order price shall be equitable adjusted, provided that such adjustment shall not exceed the order total price nor allow any amount for anticipated profit for performance not rendered and provided that the Seller's written intent to file a claim for adjustment is received within 30 days of the effective date of termination. Any termination shall not relieve the Buyer or Seller of their respective obligations as to any not terminated portions of this order. Upon receipt of the termination notice, the Seller shall stop work to the extent specified in the notice and take such other action as the Buyer may direct.
- (b) The Buyer may at any time by written order to the Seller, require the Seller to stop all or any part of the work called for by this order for a period of 90 days after the written order is delivered to the Seller, and for such further period as the Buyer may desire not to exceed 180 days. An extension beyond 180 days must be by agreement of the parties. In the event the parties do not reach such an agreement, the Buyer will either:
- (1) Cancel the Stop Work Order; or
- (2) Terminate the work covered by such order as provided in Paragraph (a) above or Article 18 above.
- (c) If the Stop Work Order issued under this clause is canceled or the period of the order or any extension thereof expires, the Seller shall resume work. An equitable adjustment shall be made in the delivery schedule or contract price or both, and the purchase order shall be modified in writing accordingly if:
- (1) The Stop Work Order results in an increase in the time required for or in the Seller's cost the performance of any part of this order.
- (2) The Seller files a claim for such adjustment within 30 days after the end of the period of work stoppage; provided that if the Buyer decides the facts justify such action, it may receive and act upon any such claim filed at

Pending the making of any decision pursuant to this article, the Subcontractor shall proceed diligently with performance under the subcontract.

- (c) If any appeal or claim be prosecuted by the Buyer under this article, the Subcontractor shall be permitted to participate in such prosecution for the purpose of protecting the Subcontractor's interests. The parties agree that they will cooperate fully in assisting each other in any such proceedings. The Buyer agrees that it will not take any action which would prejudice the Subcontractor's rights under this article without the Subcontractor's consent. All costs and expenses incurred by the Subcontractor and Buyer in prosecuting any appeal or claim initiated by the Buyer at the Subcontractor's request shall be paid by the Subcontractor. The rights and obligations accruing to the Subcontractor and the Buyer under this article shall survive the completion of performance and final payment under this subcontract. Any decision upon appeal, if binding on the Buyer, shall be binding upon the Subcontractor.
- (d) Should any appeal or claim be denied or decided adversely to the Subcontractor's interest, and should the Subcontractor continue to disagree with the disputed decision, the Subcontractor shall have the benefit of any right which the Buyer may have to prosecute a suit in the name of the Buyer against the United States Government. The Buyer agrees to assist in the prosecution of any such suit in a reasonable manner. All costs of any such suit shall be paid by the Subcontractor without prejudice to any right the Subcontractor may otherwise have to recovery.
